Civil War N.C. 1862

HEAD-QUARTERS 68TH REGIMENT, N. C. M.

Greensborough, April 8, 1862.

Notice is hereby given to G. W. Swiggott, Elisha F. Hall, John A. Newman, Adam Leonard, James McCandless, John Farrington, Lorenzo Ozment, Robert Hodgins, Emsley Safewright, George Hutton, George L. Anthony, Daniel Lineberry, Franklin Stevenson, Daniel Farmer, Alfred A. Phipps, John Stanley, John Kirkman, James Curtis and A. G. Crates, men who were detailed from this Regiment on the 1st day of March last for military service, and who have not yet reported themselves, to report to me at Greensborough, on Tuesday the 15th instant, with the requisite equipments, and ready to go to camp at Camp Mangum, near Raleigh. Those failing to comply with this notice will be considered deserters and dealt with as such.

It is my duty to execute the following order, which I shall have to do, unless those persons report themselves.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT NORTH CAROLINA.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, (MILITIA.)
RALEIGH, APRIL 8th, 1862.

General Order,
No. 4.

Any person secreting a drafted man, or who shall assist him in escaping from the service for which he had been detailed, will be arrested and made to take the place of the drafted man, by the Colonel commanding the regiment.

By order of Governor Clark.

J. C. MARTIN, Adjutant General.

The following persons who have been reported to me as sick, or unfit for immediate duty will also report to me at Greensborough on the day above specified:—Franklin Jordan, Joseph L. Leonard, John Edwards, William Edwards, W. L. Fisher, Daniel Clapp (of Jacob), and David Sheppera.

J. CORLE,

Col. Com. 68th Reg. N. C. M.
